Use 104 Main Street, Rutherglen as your business address on your website, your cards and your ASIC registration — instead of your home address. We'll provide written consent for it to be your registered office and hold your mail here for collection. Mail is held for collection only; we don't open, scan or forward it, and we ask that you collect at least fortnightly. The service doesn't include use of the workspace — but you can add a membership any time.
